About the Kimberly Akin Foundation:

The Kimberly Akin Foundation is a non-for-profit organization that was developed in remembrance of Kimberly, a single mother of three boys and a registered nurse for almost 40 years. Kimberly dedicated her professional and personal life to caring for others, even when it meant sacrificing herself physically, mentally, and emotionally. Her love for her family and nursing career motivated her children to 'pay it back' to others that display similar characteristics and attributes of Kim.
